Keynote Speaker

CHRIS HEETER

Leadership Speaker • Wilderness Guide • Author • Founder, The Wild Institute

Chris Heeter

Nevada Women's Fund is honored to welcome Chris Heeter as the keynote speaker for this year's event. Drawing from more than 30 years as a wilderness guide and dog musher, Chris delivers an unforgettable keynote that blends humor, powerful storytelling, and practical leadership lessons. Through remarkable stories from the trail, she reveals how great leaders harness individual strengths, navigate change, build trust, and create workplaces where people thrive. Her unique perspective inspires audiences to rethink leadership, embrace authenticity, and unlock the full potential of their teams.

Chris has inspired audiences across the country, including Fortune 500 companies, nonprofit organizations, government agencies, healthcare systems, and educational institutions. Recognized nationally for her engaging presentations, she has been featured on the Discovery Channel's National Geographic Today and is known for creating customized experiences that leave audiences motivated long after the event concludes.

Why You'll Love Chris's Message

- Inspires courageous, authentic leadership
- Shares practical strategies for navigating change
- Encourages stronger, more connected teams
- Demonstrates how embracing individual strengths drives organizational success
- Leaves audiences energized, empowered, and ready to take action
