

CONTACT: Isabelle Rodriguez Wilson
isabelle@nevadawomensfund.org
775-786-2335
775-830-0428

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Executive Officers and New Board Named for the 2019 Nevada Women's Fund Board of Directors

RENO, Nev. (January 8, 2019) – The 2019 Nevada Women's Fund (NWF) Board of Directors selects the Executive Board and names nine new board members to the organization charged with championing the needs of local women and children. One of the primary support outcomes is providing educational scholarships. Since 1983, the NWF has awarded more than $7.7 million in grants and education scholarships to women throughout northern Nevada.

Executive officers serving for a one-year term include: Kerry Eaton, attorney for Drinkwater Eaton Law Offices, chair; Jamie Gazza, vice president of corporate banking for Nevada State Bank, vice chair; Sarah Crumby, CPA for Cupit, Milligan, Ogden & Williams, CPAs, treasurer; Ronele Dotson, president of RAD Strategies Inc., recorder; and Kristen Chinvarasopak, immediate past chair.

The organization welcomes nine new members to the 2019 board including: Amanda Alfaro, Owner and Managing Broker of Ferrari Lund Real Estate; Andi Guevara, Anchor/Reporter at 2 News; Elizabeth Hutson, M.D. Gynecologist/Urogynecologist, owner of My Women's Center; Jen Eastwood, Director of Public Relations at Foundry; Jill Johnson, Director of Communications & Alumni Relations for Bishop Manogue Catholic High School; Kelly Corrigan, Director of Marketing, Runner & Sponsor Relations, Race178; Marge Millar, Business Manager for Keep Truckee Meadows Beautiful; Olivia Baugh, M.D. Internist with Renown Health; and Tricia Gallenbeck, Vice President/General Manager for Reno Media Group.

All members of the board serve staggered six-year terms. Current board members include: Alexia Bratiotis Jobson, Public Affairs Manager for REMSA; Amy Shocket, Realtor, Dickson Realty; Ann Wilkinson, Chair of State of Nevada Public Utilities Commission; Bethany J. Sexton, VP of Administration Department of Medicine for Renown Health; Carolyn Barbash, Vice President Energy Market Policy for NV Energy; Christina Stoeber Young, President Sunshine Tahoe; Dawn Welsh, Director IT Management and Client Services at Renown Health; Debby Bullentini, Business Woman; Jamii Uboldi, Marketing Director at Northern Nevada Medical Center; Joanna Jacob, Vice President of Ferrari Public Affairs; Kaitlyn Ovard, Director of Finance at Silver Legacy; Karen Purcell, Principal Owner of PK Electrical, Inc.; Kathy Picollo, Vice President, Human Resources at the Nugget Resort; Megan Brown, Fiduciary Controller at Beacon Trust Company; Michele Casey, Corporate Retirement Director Wells Fargo; Sarah E. Baley, Attorney with McDonald Carano Wilson; Sharon Wurm, Director of Financial Aid & Student Success at Truckee Meadows Community College; and Valerie J. Clark, President of Clark & Associates;

-more-

The role of the board is to provide support and direction to the organization. In addition, board members serve as representatives on five working committees including: allocations, board leadership, development, marketing and finance and investments.

For 36 years, the Fund has focused on helping women reach their full potential by bringing together the local community's intellectual, emotional and financial resources to empower women for today and tomorrow.

To learn more about the Nevada Women's Fund, visit nevadawomensfund.org or call 775-786-2335.

About the Nevada Women's Fund

Established in 1982 the Nevada Women's Fund (NWF) has been supporting women and families through the allocation of education scholarships to help northern Nevada women increase their chances for a self-sufficient future. NWF works to identify the issues that affect Nevada's women and families and facilitate solutions by recognizing and celebrating the outstanding achievements of women in our communities and providing them with the resources they need to become community leaders.

###